

Health and Safety at TNOYS' 39th Annual Conference

Last Updated [May 5, 2022]

After pivoting to a completely virtual conference over the last two years, we are so thrilled to get together in person to collaborate and connect at TNOYS' 39th Annual Conference!

The TNOYS Team is dedicated to protecting the health and safety of our attendees. We are closely following the local health guidance based on the current COVID-19 threat level ahead of the conference and will update this document as necessary to reflect the latest information. See here for the latest COVID-19 tracking data for Harris County, TX.

We will implement safety protocols to protect conference attendees and staff including following the local mask guidelines based on the current threat level, practicing distanced seating, ensuring the availability of masks and hand sanitizer, and a no handshake policy. All conference attendees should prepare to follow these protocols as well as venue guidelines to ensure their full participation in the conference. See here for the most updated venue protocols.

Conference attendees will also be required to submit a COVID-19 waiver no sooner than 48 hours prior to attending the conference via the conference app, Whova. Through the waiver attendees will attest that they have not been recently exposed to COVID-19, are not currently experiencing any symptoms, and will agree to follow the health and safety protocols put in place. In abundance of caution, we ask that any persons who have traveled to highly-impacted areas, been exposed to confirmed or suspected cases of COVID-19, or have been diagnosed with COVID (and not cleared by a state or local health authority) within the 14 days immediately prior to the conference, do not attend. You may view a copy of the waiver that attendees will be expected to submit on the following page.

Any registrants who experience symptoms or contract COVID-19 ahead of the conference and are not cleared by a state or local health authority, may receive a credit to attend next year's conference. Please contact annualconference@tnoys.org for more information.

We appreciate your help ensuring that all of us can safely gather to share, learn and collaborate for the benefit of Texas' youth and families. Enjoy the conference!

Please contact us at annualconference@tnoys.org or 512-815-3299 for any questions.
