Conference Pre-Institutes

June 27, 2017

TNOYS is once again bringing back a full day of pre-institutes on Tuesday, June 27, the day before our annual conference kicks off. The two pre-institute sessions take place at the Westin Galleria in Houston and include CEUs and lunch. Conference registration is not required to attend.

Recovery through Participation: A Showcase and Introduction to Elevating Youth Voice with Trauma-Informed Practices 10:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. - FREE

Please join TNOYS and our partners as we release a new curriculum designed to share information on integrating youth engagement with principles of trauma-informed care and build a network of providers committed to this work. Participants will have the opportunity to network, share their successes and goals with youth engagement, receive guidance from TNOYS and other providers, and hear from organizations that have had hands-on experience with youth engagement.

Protecting Your Organization, Your Staff, and the Young People You Serve 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Part I: "Are You Prepared? An Interactive Media Crisis Workshop for Child and Youth Serving Organizations," 10:00 am to 1:30 pm. - $25 for TNOYS members; $50 for non-members

What would you do if your organization was thrust into the spotlight by a front-page news story? Test your response skills in this interactive, scenario-based workshop led by Anna Geismar of The Comms Shop, LLC. Anna has over a decade of experience in communications, including supporting multiple Fortune 500 companies facing major public crises.

Part II: "Preventing Abuse and False Allegations of Abuse in Your Organization," 2:00 to 4:30pm - FREE

This afternoon session will feature presentations by:

- Praesidium, a national leader in abuse risk management, providing organizational administrators with an advanced understanding of how abuse happens in social service agencies
- Angelo Peter Giardino, a Professor of Pediatrics and Section Chief of Academic General Pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine (BCM), discussing his experience working with the Catholic Church and Olympic Committee on responding to and creating policies to prevent child sexual abuse
