

AUDIENCE AND ATTENDEES

Each year, TNOYS' Annual Conference on Services to Youth and Families hosts hundreds of attendees from across Texas and beyond. Attendees include:

- Front-Line Youth Services Staff
- Caseworkers
- Clinicians and Counselors
- Social Workers
- Homeless and Foster Care Liaisons
- Educators and School-Based Professionals
- Child Welfare Professionals
- Nonprofit Professionals, Executives, Directors, and Administrators
- Public Health Professionals
- Youth and Young Adult Leaders
- Juvenile Justice Professionals

Guided by the value of cross-systems collaboration, the conference hosts a diverse range of agencies and organizations that work within seven youth-systems: child welfare, housing and homelessness services, justice, commercial sexual exploitation of youth (csey), health and behavioral health, education, workforce/higher education. Past organizations and agencies include:
