

TNOYS' Mission:
Strengthening services and support for Texas youth and families to help them overcome challenges and achieve healthy development

We advance this mission through a three-pronged approach to systems change:

Policy

We advocate for public policies and priorities to strengthen youth and families.

Practice

Our training and program development services ensure that those in the field and on the front lines are fully equipped to provide the highest quality services to meet the complex needs of youth and families they serve.

Partnership

We work in partnership with young people to demonstrate what youth are capable of when they have opportunities to use their voices and when people invest in them.

We provide an array of services:

- Membership Program
- Youth Engagement Program
- Public Policy Advocacy
- Training and Program Development
- Leadership and Organizational Development
- Experiential Learning Camps

Across youth-focused systems including:

Focused on four priority areas:

- Equity and Inclusion
- Youth Voice and Youth/Adult Partnership
- Research & Performance-Driven Policy and Practice
- Cross-Systems Collaboration

What our members have to say:

- "In the nonprofit world, we often have a lot of questions about our programs and not a lot of answers. TNOYS is an invaluable resource for training and technical assistance to help us be the best we can be for the youth and families we serve."
- John Bracken - CEO, Montgomery County Youth Services
- "Each year STARRY benefits immensely from the expansive work of TNOYS. The capacity of TNOYS to bring advocacy, action, and achievement across a network that spans the entire state of Texas is incredibly important. Thousands of children, youth, and families have safer, brighter, and more hopeful futures because of the work of TNOYS."
- Richard Singleton - Executive Director, STARRY
